

TOM TERJESEN

Chief Information Officer

In this role, Tom is responsible for leading Peraton's information technology (IT) organization and its strategy, ensuring proactive and consistent technology support to the growth, financial, employee experience, and operational objectives of the company. Additionally, he serves as the senior IT advisor to Peraton's executive leadership team.

Tom returned to Peraton having most recently served as senior vice president and chief information officer at ASRC Federal. While there, he led all aspects of its IT information technology function and strategy execution. Following the acquisition of Perspecta in 2021, he became Peraton's vice president of information technology. Earlier in his career, he held IT leadership roles at Vencore, BAE Systems Inc., and AIG.

Tom earned a bachelor's degree in information systems with a concentration in homeland security from Strayer University.
